Fighting Is Revived in the Congo

ELISABETHVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Units of the Katanga army, spearheaded by white mercenary troops, captured the North Katanga town of Manono Thursday and routed some 600 troops of Antoine Gizenga's Stanleyville regime.

The Katanga Province vice president, Jean Marie Kibwe, said seven Gizengist troops were killed south of Manono when they opposed the advance of the Katanga force but hardly a shot was fired in the town, an important tin mining center 300 miles north of Elisabethville.

Kibwe said he had no news of any prisoners being taken nor of the self-styled Lualaba government that leaders of the Lualaba tribe opposed to Katanga President Moise Tshombe proclaimed at Manono after the Stanleyville force captured it on Jan. 9.

Interior Minister Godefroid Munongo said there had been no deaths among the Katanga army or among the civilian population.

The U.N. garrison in the area, some 200 Nigerian troops, stood clear of the action, Munongo said, just as they did when the Stanleyville troops seized it. Because most of the white mercenaries in the invasion force were believed to be South Africans, the Irish commander of the U.N. force, Gen. Sean McKeown, had expressed fears on Tuesday that they would attack the Nigerians.

Munongo said the offensive against Manono was launched from the township of Piana, about 60 miles to the south. Units of 60 Elite Corps — Katanga's white, English-speaking army group, had controlled Piana for some days.

"It was all over very quickly," said the interior minister. "There was little defiance from the Gizengists who apparently fled just at the sight of the advancing Katanga army."

The Katanga army's capture of Manono was no surprise. For the past two weeks troops and equipment had been reported massing for the offensive.

Charge Unfounded, Says Fort Smith

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — A Chamber of Commerce official says a Michigan congressman's charges that this city "lured" the Norge Division of Borg-Warner Corp. away from Michigan are unfounded.

Paul Latture, chamber manager, said plant construction already had been started when the nearby city of Greenwood approved issuance of $7.5 million in bonds to help finance construction.

Greenwood issued the bonds, he said, because of a complex political subdivision arrangement within the county. The bonds are to be repaid by rent on the plant.

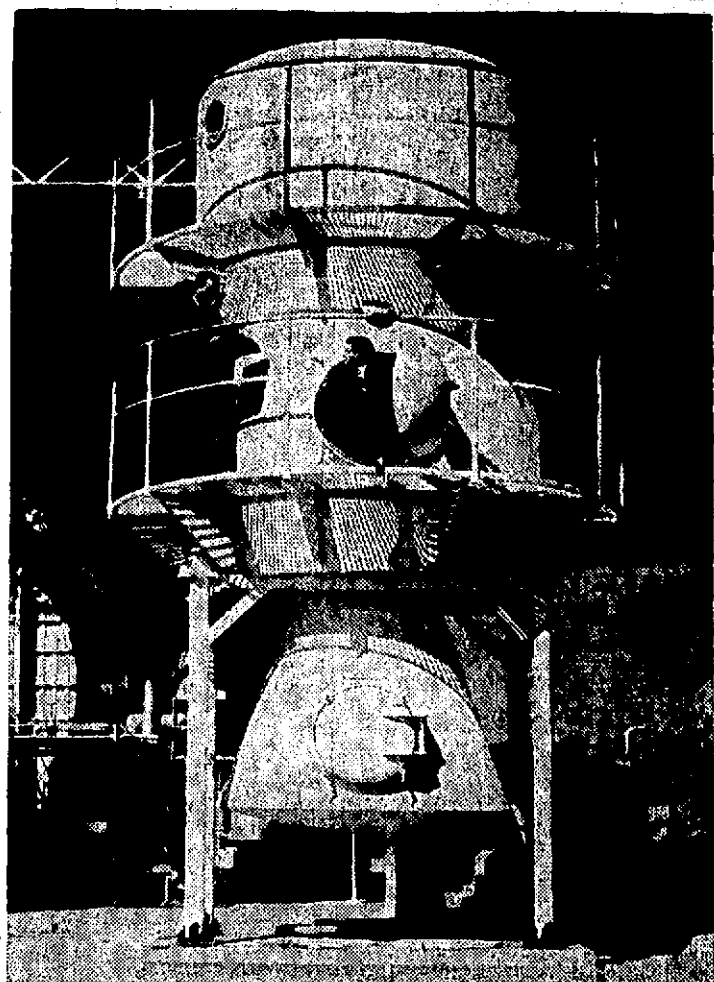

Rep. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., said Wednesday he would seek revision of tax laws to prevent use of tax-free municipal bonds to secure industry.

Death Penalty

MONTPELIER, Vt. (AP) — The Vermont House of Representatives has killed a bill, H.R. 662, which would have abolished the death penalty in first-degree murder convictions.

Weather

ARKANSAS — Fair and continued cool today.

SPACE APARTMENT — A full-scale working model of a three-man space station is being set up by Convair in San Diego. The station is 24 feet long and 10 feet in diameter. (The walkways and supporting legs are not part of the actual station.) It contains three rooms—a working compartment, living compartment and cockpit. The station, designed to test life-support systems astronauts will need in space, will be able to duplicate all space conditions except lack of gravity. It's the model for a space vehicle which engineers say could be orbited by 1963.

Rumors Say Fidel Can't Play Golf

HAVANA (AP) — Dark rumors floated through Havana today that Prime Minister Fidel Castro—despite what he says—never will be a winner at the imperialistic game of golf.

Caddies who watched the Cuban leader and two aides indulging in 18 holes of golf — previously scorned as "sport of the privileged classes"—likened Castro's swing to a cane cutter wielding a machete.

"Fidel will never be a golfer," one caddy said. "He's too impatient. He kept running after the ball after he hit it as if this were a soccer game."

Castro declared himself most satisfied and said, "I can beat Kennedy easily." A companion, economic czar Ernesto Guevara, said, "I'm sure I could beat even Eisenhower."

Both Castro and Guevara, in mounting attacks on former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, have repeatedly ridiculed golf and those who play it.

Havana buses still carry remnants of an anti-Eisenhower campaign—tattered signs reading "Eisenhower is the world's most stupid golfer."

Caddies said Castro shot something over 150 on the 6,692-yard par 70 Villalca course.

As far as is known, this was Castro's second attempt at golf. Caddies said he played three holes last Sunday.

Castro's venture into capitalistic is necessary relaxation for officials who "work day and night," the government-controlled press said.

Golf scores of both President Kennedy and former President Eisenhower are almost top secret but word does get around in the golfing fraternity.

Walter F. Hall, former professional at the Kennedy home course at Hyannis Port, Mass., said the President is capable of shooting in the 70s.

Eisenhower's scores are believed to range from the high 80s to the low 90s.

Japs to End All Import Barriers

TOKYO (AP) — Japan today moved closer toward removing all import barriers. She also allocated more exchange holdings for buying goods from foreign countries beginning April 1.

Continuing Japan's trade "liberalization" policy begun last year, the government removed import restrictions on 720 additional items bringing the total to 2,700 items or 65 per cent of this country's imports.

At the same time, the government allocated a whopping $3.90 billion for imports and invisible trade payments for the next six months ending Sept. 30.

The foreign exchange budget, approved today by the Cabinet, was in line with Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda's plan to double national income within 10 years.

Earthslide in Russia Kills 145

MOSCOW (AP) — An earthslide near Kiev killed 145 people and caused millions of dollars in damage on March 13, the Kiev newspaper Pravda of the Ukraine announced today.

Another 143 persons were hospitalized, but by Thursday 44 had been released.

It was one of the worst natural disasters reported in the history of the Soviet Union.

The slide occurred near Babyl, the tragic ground where the Nazis massacred tens of thousands of Jews and Ukrainians during World War II.

Rumors of the disaster have circulated in Moscow for the past two weeks. The report in the Kiev Pravda was the first confirmation.

Pravda of the Ukraine said workmen were trying to fill in a ravine partially filled with water, but their technique was faulty. The water washed out one side of the ravine about 8:30 a.m., sending the earth rolling down into an inhabited area and devastating about 75 acres.

2 of 5 Jail Breakers at Large

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Only two of the five men who broke out of Garland County Jail Wednesday are still at large.

Two of them walked into the sheriff's office and surrendered Thursday night after spending a wet, cold day in the woods.

Deputy Sheriff C.B. Renegar said Vesper Black, 49, of Hot Springs, who was being held for forgery and uttering, and Charles Edward Brown, 18, of Lonsdale, who was being held for auto theft, said they had stayed in woods near town and officers had passed by them numerous times while searching.

Thomas D. Bowman, 37, of Hot Springs, who had been jailed on a worthless check charge, was overtaken and captured by O.C. Heaton of Hot Springs after he stole Heaton's truck after the break.

Still at large were Charles Wadsworth, 29, of Mechanicsburg, Pa., false pretense, and Lloyd Plummer, 21, Poyen, robbery.

Twenty prisoners were ordered locked in their cells Thursday after an inspection following the escape turned up several hacksaw blades and a blackjack improvised from a rock in a sack.

The escapees used a hacksaw blade to saw through bars on a jail window, broke out a piece of sheet metal used to further protect the window against escapes, then slid down a blanket to a fire escape. Sheriff Duffie Sealey said.

A radio turned up full-blast drowned out the noise.

Daughter of President is Under Guard

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Secret Service agents were reported to have under surveillance today a group of pro-Castro Cubans suspected of plotting to kidnap President Kennedy's bubbling little daughter.

Caroline Kennedy, 3, is under tightened security guard at the Atlantic shore home of her grandparents. She is spending an Easter holiday here with her mother and father, the President and Mrs. Kennedy.

The hunted Cubans — four of them, it is understood — are described by a well informed source as "pro-Castro and anti-Kennedy." This source said, "We think we know who they are and we are keeping them under surveillance."

He added that the Cubans had been located in the Palm Beach area, but that—as of late Friday night—"There isn't enough evidence at this point for an arrest."

He added, "They have made no overt move and you can expect them to be pretty cagey under the circumstances. All of this publicity may have eliminated the possibility of an arrest."

It was learned Friday afternoon that the Secret Service started an investigation of the reported kidnap plot about a week ago.

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, acknowledged that a Secret Service inquiry is underway, but he declined to pin it in any way to Caroline. Salinger said the President—and presumably Mrs. Kennedy—had no knowledge of any investigation until he learned about it late Friday as a result of news dispatches.

At a news conference, Salinger minimized the inquiry. He said, "The Secret Service gets information from time to time on the President and his family which requires a routine investigation. There is such an investigation underway."

Salinger also told newsmen, "All I want to say is that nothing unusual is going on. This is a routine investigation, the like of which they (the Secret Service) conduct a number every year. I am trying to caution you not to write something sensational about a big investigation. This is a routine case being handled routinely."

Secret Service Chief U. F. Baughman, here with the presidential party, said "I will not deny or confirm" the reports about an investigation.

Deportation of Costello Underway

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department today announced it is starting formal deportation proceedings against two underworld figures, Frank Costello of New York and Isadore Blumenfeld of St. Paul, Minn.

Costello, onetime kingpin of the nation's gambling syndicates, is now nearing the finish of a five-year sentence at the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., for income tax evasion. The deportation action is based on that conviction.

Blumenfeld, already under a two-year sentence on a white slave conviction, was convicted Thursday on a tax charge in the U.S. District Court at St. Paul.

The new conviction was on a charge of filing false special tax returns in relation to hidden multiple ownership of liquor establishments. He has not yet been sentenced on that conviction.

Costello, now 70, was stripped of his acquired American citizenship in a 1958 denaturalization proceeding. Today he was required to register as an alien at the Atlanta penitentiary office. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said.

The Immigration Service then served him immediately with an order requiring his appearance at a deportation hearing at the prison April 10.

A native of Cosenza, Italy, Costello was admitted to this country in 1895 and was naturalized in 1925.

Blumenfeld, 59, is a native of Domest, Romania, who came to the United States as a child and never sought American citizenship.

That Robber Was Surprised

MEMPHIS (AP) — Edward Valden tucked a bulky paper sack under his arm early today, closed his liquor store and stepped out on the sidewalk.

A masked gunman ordered him to drop the sack. Valden did, leaping into his car and sped away. The bandit scooped up the sack. His loot: A NEW SAUCEPAN.

Business Shows Signs of Improving

WASHINGTON (AP) — Business, as measured by manufacturing, shows signs of improvement.

The Commerce Department reported yesterday that: Shipments from factories rose 1 per cent from January to February, allowing for seasonal trends;

New orders to factories rose by 2 per cent with the gain mainly in durable goods, and the backlog of unfilled orders rose during February by nearly $300 million after declining for more than a year;

Book values of inventories held by manufacturers were reduced by $100 million in February, a slower rate of liquidation than in late 1960, and

Merchandise exports in February totaled $1.7 billion, up 7 per cent from January after seasonal adjustment.

There were negative signs, too. The department said factory sales were 10 per cent below February 1960, and orders were 7 per cent below February of last year.

Strange War Around Vietiane

By JOHN GRIFFIN

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — It's a strange war around Vientiane these days—Communist guerrilla raids in the outskirts, petty hostilities in the night clubs, secret agents flying off to mountain outposts, wounded trickling in by helicopter.

It's a war in a passing eclipse, with both sides almost waiting in semitrance for a Soviet answer to a Western cease-fire proposal.

Men are dying each day fighting in fields, jungles and uplands—but most people, especially here in the capital, are living normally against a background of uncertainty.

Some people have fled across the nearby Mekong River to Thailand. Yet in Vientiane things are as usual, sometimes even the pedestrian drivers doze in the shade, streets sometimes packed to traffic jam proportions with shiny new cars. An occasional truck with smiling soldiers rolls by.

Shops are well-stocked, and the Indian merchants, a barometer of impending danger, say they are not leaving yet. Newly imported Thai hostesses in an air-conditioned night club report a brisk trade.

The war is further away at night. After dark Laotians dance and drink at a carnival. And yet after sundown, much of the surrounding countryside belongs more to the rebel Pathet Lao than the royal government. Mostly the rebels roam and recruit. Sometimes they raid.

Sometimes people are ambushed and killed. Nobody gets too excited because this, too, is unnoticed at the dusty airport. Planes and helicopters carry strange, sometimes sad, cargo to and from the battle.

The overworked helicopters and their quick American pilots fly everywhere—and have the bullet holes to prove it.

They also fly back with the dead and wounded, a grim sign that even an almost-truce is far from peace in a land of once happy people caught in the claws of the cold war.

Moderate Rise in Easter Shopping

NEW YORK (AP) — Good shopping weather and the earlier Easter helped retail trade rise moderately over the calendar week of a year ago, Dun & Bradstreet Inc. reported today.

Easter is two weeks earlier this year than last. Dollar volume for the week was 3 to 7 per cent higher than a year ago.

Year-to-year gains were posted in men, women's and children's apparel, eggs, fresh meat and produce and candy.

The Egg, Symbol of Easter, Denotes Many Things—Birth, Life and Eternal Hope

By Mary Anita Laseter
Star Feature Writer

The egg is a fitting symbol for the Easter season. It denotes many things for which the Christian observance stands — birth, life and therefore, eternal hope.

So many of us look upon past mistakes and murmur, "If I only had another chance." That is what the Son of God gave each of us yet unborn when he died upon a cross for the sins he knew we would commit.

An egg is a tangible object we use to represent this. For the sake of children the egg is colored and made even more attractive for Easter Egg Hunts. When they find them, they are happy since it is what they are seeking. This principle can also be applied to adults.

What are you seeking in life? Happiness, of course. In order to achieve that, our "eggs" may be fancy or plain but, necessarily, good instead of rotten.

People, as well as motives and ambitions, have the egg label sometimes on them, "good" or "rotten." But unlike an egg, a human being can still be saved if there are signs of "going bad."

As a citizen of our land you have recognized the importance of the egg, but as a member of the human race, have you realized its deeper significance?

Mother Sees Quads for First Time

HOLYOKE, Mass. (AP) — "Oh!" exclaimed a slim, little mother glimpsing her quadruplets for the first time today. "I didn't think they'd look so good. They're beautiful!"

Mrs. Raymond J. Feyre, 35, mother of six other children, rose from the chair in which she had been wheeled from her room to the Providence Hospital "Premy" (premature baby) nursery and gasped her delight.

She had been disappointed Thursday by her doctor's opinion that she was then not strong enough to see the quadruplets born Wednesday.

Standing entranced, in her powder blue bathrobe, before the row of four infants in their incubators, she was clearly surprised.

"It looks as if it would be too long before they could come home," she said hopefully. But the babies must gain considerably before that wish can come true, for all are less than four pounds now. And they must be over five pounds before they can be discharged.

But beaming nurses said they were all "fine" today.

They took three feedings of glucose—a kind of sugar—in water Thursday. Thursday night they took their first feeding of a regular food formula and will continue to receive these feedings every three hours from now on.

Some of the tiny babes—two girls and two boys—slept, and some sucked their thumbs as the thrilled mother watched today.

She looked at one and exclaimed, "She's an angel!"

And then—taking in all four—she said, as though she hadn't quite believed it before, "they're all mine."

Gifts and flowers continued to pour in to the mother and her 38-year-old husband — a $120-a-week insurance salesman. The gifts included furniture, cash certificates, and a donation of four quarts of milk a day for a year.

Katanga Troop Airlift Possible

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — The U.N. command today ordered aircraft on a standby alert for a possible troop airlift to Katanga, where Katanga's army captured the leftist rebel enclave of Manono.

Routine U.N. flights from Leopoldville's airport were canceled by order of U.N. military commander Gen. Sean McKeown.

The only official reason given for the sudden cancellation of the flights was that the planes may be needed for military purposes.

Okinawa Against Missile Bases

NAHA, Okinawa (AP) — The Ryukyu Legislature today demanded the United States halt construction of missile sites in American-administered Okinawa.

The U.S. 313th Air Division based at Kadena, Okinawa, recently announced four Mace nuclear missile sites were under construction.

In speaking of "the shape of things," an egg stands alone, for nothing is of the same relative dimensions unless it is "egg-shaped." There are no more suitable words to describe it, for it is neither square, round, flat, nor slanted.

The role of the egg is unique, too, for it is banninate and, yet, also animate much like the butterfly cocoon. But, it is different from a cocoon in that the butterfly is the only result that can be expected from one and many kinds of life, including man, begin from an egg.

The value of eggs from the standpoint of nutrition and economy has been particularly emphasized during the month of March, National Egg month, and in the local observance of Egg Week. The egg is recognized as one of nature's near-perfect foods, and how many times have we heard the expression, "as American as ham and eggs?"

As a citizen of our land you have recognized the importance of the egg, but as a member of the human race, have you realized its deeper significance?

A major rebel assault at this time may be only a show of strength. But it could also be a kickoff of a major drive that would be aimed at reaching the Mekong River border with Thailand in the south.

This would have the effect of dividing Laos formally in two—a move with more psychological than strategic significance because the nation already is large ly cut by guerrilla units.

Birch Was a Fervent Baptist

MACON, Ga. (AP) — John Morrison Birch, for whom the controversial John Birch Society is named, was a fervent Baptist fundamentalist missionary and soldier. An Army captain in the intelligence service, he was killed by Communists in China Aug. 25, 1945, just 10 days after the Japanese had agreed to surrender in World War II.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Birch of Macon, both former missionaries, declare that he lost his life trying to obtain information with which to warn America of the Communist danger.

Birch was born May 28, 1918, at Landaur, India, while his parents were missionaries. They brought him to America at an early age and he proved to be a brilliant student both in high school and college.

At Mercer University, a Baptist school at Macon, from which he was graduated with honors in 1939, he was a member of a student group bringing heresy charges against some of his professors. The charges eventually were dismissed although they caused a stir in church and college circles.

Before going to China as a missionary, Birch studied for a time at Baptist Seminary at Fort Worth, Tex., under the late J. Frank Norris, a firebrand Baptist fundamentalist.

Negroes Say Policy Shows No Change

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Attorneys for Negro plaintiffs in the Dollarway School integration case contend the school board's new statement of policy changes nothing and should not be taken as a good faith move by the courts.

This view was expressed by George Howard of Pine Bluff and Robert Carter of New York in a pleading mailed Thursday to U.S. District Court in Little Rock. The court had not received the paper today, but Howard released a copy here.

The board's statement offers no benefit to two plaintiffs, Corliss Smith and James E. Warfield, or to other Negro children currently enrolled in segregated schools, Howard wrote.

The board said any further desegregation of the Dollarway School would take place at the first grade level. The board new statement was issued after the 8th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals rejected the board's earlier plan under which one Negro girl was admitted to the first grade of an all-white school last fall.

The Smith girl and Warfield are 10th graders in all Negro Townsend Park school.

Howard's brief said the board has left the burden of desegregation on Negro parents and students. It argued against the board's intention to assign pupils partly on a basis of test scores. The board has an obligation to eliminate unconstitutional segregation, Howard wrote.

Heavy Fighting Brings Advance by Laos Reds

By JOHN GRIFFIN

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Communist rebel groups have taken the important Laotian government stronghold of Tha Thom, 85 miles northeast of the capital, in a major assault that shattered a week-old assault that shattered a sources said today.

These sources, which were close to the fighting area, said large units of Vietnamese troops from Communist North Viet Nam were reported to have taken part in the siege which included heavy artillery shelling.

Tha Thom is just south of the Plain of Jars where major Vietnamese units are believed located and only 25 air miles from the Thai border and the key government city of Pakxang.

The Communist assault on Tha Thom was the first big break in the general battlefield quiet since the SEATO meeting was opened in Bangkok Monday.

A major rebel assault at this time may be only a show of strength. But it could also be a kickoff of a major drive that would be aimed at reaching the Mekong River border with Thailand in the south.

Peel Guilty, May Face 2nd Trial

By JACK SIMMS

FORT PIERCE, Fla. (AP) — Joseph A. Peel Jr., convicted of murdering a prominent judge, remained in jail today to await sentencing and word on whether he will be tried for the death of the victim's wife.

A Circuit Court jury ended Florida's most-publicized murder trial Thursday by convicting Peel, 37, of plotting the slaying of Judge C. E. Chillingworth. The verdict came after 5 hours 24 minutes of deliberation.

It was accompanied by a recommendation of mercy, making a sentence of life in prison mandatory, and saving Peel from the electric chair.

Defense counsel served notice of appeal. A hearing on the motion was tentatively set for April 26 before Circuit Court Judge D. C. Smith. Formal sentencing was set for the same day.

Peel was brought to trial March 6, several months after officers broke open the secret of the Chillingworth's disappearance. Two witnesses at the trial testified that they kidnapped the judge and his wife, Marjorie, from their waterfront home near Palm Beach, June 15, 1955; took the couple about one mile off-shore in the Atlantic Ocean, weighted their bodies and pushed them out of a boat. Neither of the bodies has been found.

Floyd Holzapfel and Bobby Lincoln, former Negro leader of moonshining at West Palm Beach, testified they killed the Chillingworths at the request of Peel.

Holzapfel awaits sentencing for first degree murder after pleading guilty to participating in the slayings and waiving a jury trial. The state promised immunity to Lincoln.

Both Holzapfel and Lincoln testified that Peel wanted Chillingworth killed because of fear the judge would disclose Peel's position as a leader of a bolita (gambling) ring and a protection racket. Peel was city judge at West Palm beach at the time.

Guilty of Locking Girl in Room

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Kensinger pleaded guilty Thursday to charges of contributing to the delinquency of their daughter, Joyce Elaine, 13, by keeping her locked in her room after school over a period of years.

They will be sentenced next Thursday.

The court Thursday removed the couple's four other children from their legal custody.

The parents were arrested three weeks ago after Joyce Elaine ran away. She told authorities she was not allowed out of the room for long periods the past seven years. Her father said she was locked up for "sassing" her mother.

Cuba Out of Soap, Can't Clean Up

HAVANA (AP) — The Communist party newspaper Hoy hummed the soap shortage today in a satirical song called "I'll have soap sometime."

The soap shortage is one of the most severe to hit the country in the past year, but nothing has been said officially about it.

The theme of Hoy's ditty is that a little lack of soap never hurt anyone. It published the words and the music, borrowed from a lively peasant dance. The words run like this:

"If I now have what I never had, if I have a home, a country, I care nothing if I lack a little soap. What care I about a little soap?"

Congressmen Get Plenty State Mail

By GORDON BROWN

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's New Frontier has piled the mail high on the desk of Arkansas Congressmen.

Without exception, both senators and the five representatives, report that mail from the home folks is the heaviest it has ever been in their experience. And for most of them, that goes back quite a way.

Much of the mail involves legislation before Congress to carry out Kennedy's program.

Proposals concerning depressed areas, aid to education, health insurance for the aged, financing the federal highway system and the minimum wage all have brought mountains of mail from Arkansas members report.

Not only that, several members said, "more people are writing about more things."

Aides of both Sens. John L. McClellan and J. W. Fulbright report that there have been occasions in the past when their out-of-state mail has been heavier than at present—those being the several times when both figured in highly publicized investigations.

But never has their Arkansas mail been so heavy.

Part of the increase is due to the fact that with Democrats taking over the White House the Democrats now control the nation at patronage so more folks are writing about jobs.

Another significant development they report, is an increasingly heavy volume of mail from the older folks with social security problems. For help, most of those people turn to their senators and representatives.

Veterans and service men with problems also account for a lot of the congressional mail.

All Arkansans make it a practice to answer all mail from the home state, trivial or otherwise. Out of state mail, particularly the circular-type pressure mail, is generally ignored.

Committee chairmen—and that include McClellan, Fulbright and Reps. Wilbur Mills and Oren Harris—feel obligated to reply to out of state mail which concerns their committee business but generally such mail is handled through their committee staffs.

Much of the congressional mail can be handled directly by a congressman's staff but on the other hand, there's a lot which requires his personal attention.

And while much of the routine mail can be handled with a brief and simple acknowledgment, a lot of it requires a call—sometimes many calls—to one or more agencies in order to track down the information sought.

Where a large volume of mail is received on one specific point many of the congressmen draft a form reply which can be turned out on robot-type machines at a fast clip. These letters don't look like form letters.

This takes some of the load off of the staffs.

But despite the various electronic devices to help speed up the letter work, most staffs in Arkansas offices are working earlier, later and harder these days than in past sessions.

Not long ago the House, recognizing that many members are getting more mail, authorized the members to use another $6,700 a year for clerk hire.

Some members, usually those from the larger and more populous districts, plan to use the money, others don't.

Most of the Arkansas House members said they haven't decided yet if, or how, they will use the extra money.

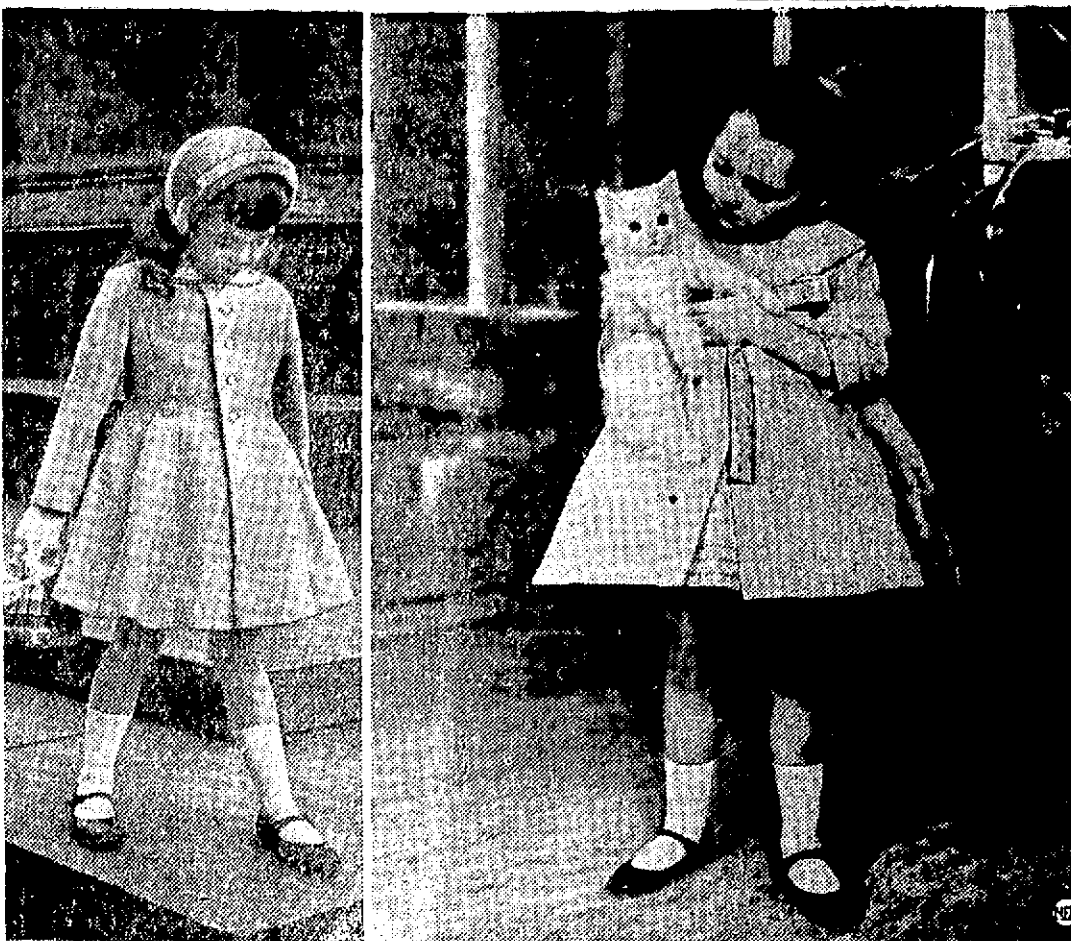

Rep. Dale Alford, whose district includes Little Rock, said that he does plan to use the extra funds to increase his staff "in view of the extra heavy mail load."

Rep. E. C. Gathings, said he's undecided but might utilize some of it later. Rep. James Trimble and Reps. Mills and Harris said they have no plans at this time to use the extra money.

Conway, Ark., won the title last year.

The college division of the track and field meet will be held Saturday.

Wants a Merger

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Globe today quoted Teamsters' Union President James F. Hoffa as saying Walter Reuther has interceded for return of the Teamsters to the AFL-CIO.

The Teamsters were expelled from the AFL-CIO, shortly after Hoffa's re-election, on grounds it was dominated by corrupt influences.

The Globe quotes Hoffa as saying that Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, recently called AFL-CIO President George Meany in an effort to reinstate the teamsters. Meany was against it, Hoffa said.

Trio Get on Car to Escape Flood

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A young mother boosted infant twins onto the top of her partly-submerged automobile Thursday night to escape the rising waters of a flash flood.

Mrs. Matthew Porter of Little Rock held her two-month-old daughters until the family was rescued by passersby. Mother and daughters were not injured.

State Trooper Gerald Garrett said the car veered into water beside a country road during a heavy rain. Porter, who was driving, took a two year old son and went for help while his wife remained in the car with the twins. Mrs. Porter climbed to the car roof with the babies when the water continued to rise.

Mother-in-Law Bargains for Grandson

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:

Ever since we were married we have lived with my husband's parents for financial reasons. My mother-in-law nearly raised my son by herself because both my husband and I worked. Now we have a chance to be transferred across the country but my mother-in-law wants me to leave my son with her. I know she raised him but still he is my son. She has treated to disown us. What should I do? —Mrs. N. H.

Dear Mrs. N. H.: There is only one thing for you to do—take the boy with you. I would think more of your mother-in-law if she hadn't threatened to disown her son and his family. Suppose she does, so what? It's a shabby business to rate the boy on a par with money, which I assume is involved. I also assume that you intend to stay home and devote your time to rearing the boy. It is a husband's job to provide for his family and a wife's to make a home for her man and rear their children. If you don't, your mother-in-law will be justified in her stand. Read my leaflets, "Mothers-in-law" and "Daughters-in-law."

Dear Helen:

My daughter is 15. I covet all the help we can get to send her into society well-informed. Frankly, I am shocked at the easy attitude of the very young toward smoking. What have you to say about teen-age smoking? —Mrs. F. L.

Dear Mrs. F. L.: I don't like to see teen-agers smoke any more than I like to see them drink. It's about the same as a baby using lipstick; grotesque and unlovely, from an aesthetic as well as moral point of view. If the youngsters could see themselves as others see them, they would wait until they are old enough to handle a cigarette with the grace born of experience and sophistication. The surest cure is ridicule.

Dear Helen:

My parents have brought me up sensibly and although we don't agree on many things, I admit they are usually right. However, some of their ideas about dating seem out-dated to me.

I have been going steady a month and a half with a boy whom I had been previously dating. The whole family enjoys his company. He often spends an evening playing chess with Dad or romping with my little brother. He even helps me bake, just for fun. We have both been taught good manners so, when Mother said it was highly improper for a girl to go for a walk in the daytime with her boy friend and hold hands, I was really surprised.

She reads your column aloud to me. Several have influenced our family decisions. Don't get me wrong. I have wonderful, understanding parents. That is why I am so confounded over all the fuss. Teen-agers holding hands in daylight is accepted by present-day society, isn't it? —LED

Dear LED: Believe me, I'm no Mrs. Grundy and think love is wonderful but there is a time and place to show one's affection. Holding hands in public is in a sense sharing something precious with strangers when it should be reserved only for the two concerned. In that sense it is poor taste, which is probably what your mother meant when she called it improper.

NEW CAREER — Songstress Lisa Kirk is deserting the night club circuit because, she finds, the patrons "are suffering from entertainment fatigue." She's concentrating now on recordings and an acting role in the TV series, "Stagecoach West," as stepping stones to a stage and movie future.

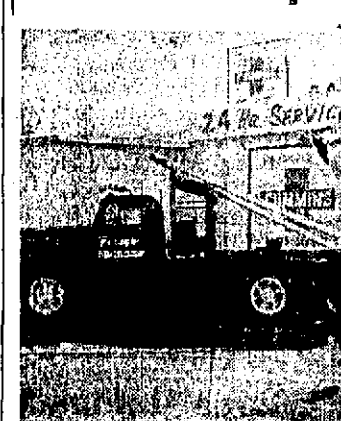

CAREFREE — Actress Joan Collins is roaming Europe, sticking close to her current heart throb, actor Warren Beatty, as he fulfills film chores abroad. Her prolonged absence from Hollywood has led to a hassle with her studio bosses at 20th Century-Fox and has cost her several good film roles.

IF A

WRONG?

He is not here. The Cross and the Tomb have both been snatched from their association with death. They have been transformed by love and self-giving. DARK FRIDAY becomes GOOD FRIDAY with the revealing of Heavenly love. Christmas is sanctified in Easter. He lives and we, too, shall live, in the measure in which we learn to kiss the Cross, our cross as well as His. His journey to Golgotha transfigured the cross forever, TURNING A SYMBOL OF SUFFERING INTO A SYMBOL OF TRIUMPHANT LIFE. It is Easter.
